FAMILY
MATTHEW CURRENT m. JANE WILSON CALL
PARIS, BOURBON COUNTY, KENTUCKY

FIRST AND SECOND GENERATION

MATTHEW CURRENT(2) — Thomas(1); b. June 4, 1800 near Paris, Bourbon County, Kentucky; d. April 19, 1865 thereat; i. on his farm (owned 1954 by Hord Perkins) on Peacock Road three miles north of Paris; m. November 8, 1824 in Harrison County, Kentucky, to JANE WILSON CALL who was b. 1806 (basis age stated in 1850 census), and d. about 1879 at the Matthew Current farm where she was buried alongside the grave of Matthew.

Parents of Matthew Current (our subject) were Thomas Current b. 1759 or 1760; d. near Paris, Kentucky, on July 19, 1838 in the 78th year of his age; m. Margaret who was b. February 24, 1758, d. July 29, 1836 near Paris, i. alongside her husband in cemetery at Mount Gilead Church (since burned and abandoned) on Maysville Pike three miles northerly of Paris (land owned, 1954, by Clarence Thomas). According to family tradition, Thomas Current emigrated from Scotland, first settling on the western shore of Maryland; whether or not he was accompanied by his parents, we presently do not know; but we expect to develop more, with patient research and with help of other descendants. The Current family migrated to Kentucky, settling northerly of Paris in Bourbon County about 1793-1794. Thomas Current followed the occupation of a farmer; in 1797, on the tax list, he had acquired 350 acres of first-rate land on Stoner Creek, bought of Thompson; and his son, John, kept a hotel at Ruddels Mills, where Stoner Creek joins Hinkston to form the south fork of the Licking. Of Thomas, as a farmer, it is related that each year he constructed a houseboat wherewith to carry his produce down the rivers, to sell in New Orleans. One off-year, he had to sell his entire produce for five dollars with which he purchased a pair of silver buckles, now (1954) treasured by descendant Russell Current(5) — Frank(4), Thomas(3), Eli(2), Thomas(1), whose farm is on Clay-Kiser Road. Of Margaret, wife of Thomas(1), we likewise know little at this time, other than the inscription on her gravestone; we believe that they had twelve children (Wm. Henry Perrin, History of Bourbon, Scott, Harrison, and Nicholas Counties, 1882 p. 577-578) of which we herein name ten, presuming two died young, as they were not mentioned in 1827 when Thomas deeded properties to his children.

Children of Thomas and Margaret Current (all historically reputed more than six feet tall)

Isgrig b. g. is in Harrison County, on the pike halfway between Ruddels Mills and Cynthia; M. Current b.g. is on Peacock Road, three miles north of Paris, on farm owned (1954) by Hord Perkins; Mt. Gilead b.g. is at Mount Gilead Church (abandoned) on Maysville Pike, three miles north-erly of Paris, on land owned (1954) by Clarence Thomas. For much of above tabulation, and other assistance, we are indebted to Mrs. William Clay Endicott(6), whose Current lineage is George Ham-ilton Current(5), m. Mary Tate, Thomas Jefferson Current(4), m. Martha Thomas, Jesse Current(3), m. Inghaber Masoner. John(2), Thomas(1). Mr. Endicott(5) is also of Current lineage—Mary Jane Current(4), m. Lafayette Endicott, Thomas Current(3), m. Priscilla Fisher, John(2), Thomas (1).

Matthew Current, following in the footsteps of his father was an aggressive farmer, whose lands (according to 1850 Census) were valued at $13,000 for tax purposes. He loved compe-tition; once, when brick houses were few and far-between in Bourbon County, Matthew decided to build a new home. About the same time his neighbor, Sam Smith, on Coulthard Mill Road down a piece, also concluded that a brick edifice was necessary to his happiness; so a race was on, to see who would complete first. The rush for materials and labor was the gossip of the countryside; and tradition has it that Matthew, hung-up for some imported material, lost the race, but built the larger and more beautiful home. Unfortunately, Matthew's home was gutted by fire, and has no brick walls standing to prove the point.

Of Matthews tragic death, ten days after Lee surrendered to Grant at Appomattox Court-house, Virginia, we relate the story of his murder by colored soldiers. Seemingly, Matthew had corrected a Negro-girl slave, who informed her boyfriend in the Army. Matthew, loafing in a grape-vine seat back of the house and talking with daughter Martha Jane, was called to the fence by two Negro soldiers who had come over from camp. Approaching the fence, he was shot and killed by the soldiers; Matthew's son, Thomas, who was plowing a nearby field, heard the shots and saw two Ne-groes running across the field. Matthew, Jr., came galloping, en route to the army camp, where he arrived before the Negroes. All soldiers in camp were lined up by the commandant before the two Negroes came running in. Identification was simple; in due course the Negroes were hanged.

In Harrison County, Kentucky, where our subjects were married November 8, 1824, there is an old record of a marriage (No. 40) of David Call to Margaret Wilson, by Benj. Coleman, on February 28, 1795. Although presently without affirmative facts and proof, we deduce with con-siderable assurance that the parents of Jane Wilson Call were this David and Margaret Wilson Call. Our reasoning follows — (1) the marriages of both the parents and the daughter occurred in the same county; (2) the dates fit the picture, i.e., parents m. in 1795, daughter b. in 1806, and daughter m. in 1824 at age of eighteen; and (3) in a will (dated May 8, 1821 and probated in Harrison County Court, August, 1821) decedent David Wilson names nine children—James, David, John, Jacob, Sam, Elizabeth, Margaret, Nancy, and Patsy. Of Jane Wilson Call's full name, we have additional proof, other than the above marriage record. Jane, throughout her life, always carried in the pocket of her apron a small Bible from which she read and quoted. This little Bible is now possessed and cherished by her granddaughter, Carrie Kiser (Current) Hall(4), presently of Louisville, Kentucky. The Bible contains the ownership inscription, faint but readable, the full name — Jane Wilson Call.

Children of Griffin Jr. were Sarah, Washington, Silas, William, Elizabeth, Gano, and James N. (lost in War between the States while serving with Captain Bedford's 5th. Kentucky Cavalry). The death of Thomas Wilson Current, like that of his father, Matthew, was also tragic. Returning from Paris and riding atop a load of lumber that he had purchased there and with which he was planning to build a barn at his Centerville farm, Thomas was thrown to the ground as the lumber slipped on a steep grade. ## The Howard Family

(Printed in "The Kentuckian-Citizen", August 6, 1954, as copied from Perrin's "History of Bourbon, Scott, Harrison, and Nicholas Counties")

Eli Howard, farmer; P.O. Ruddel's Mills. About the close of the Revolutionary War, among the emigrants from Maryland to Kentucky was James Howard, who with his family, consisting of a wife, three sons, Elijah, Paris and Matthew, and one daughter, Hannah, settled on the Maysville road, between Millersburg and Paris, in Bourbon County, at a point about three miles from the last named place, and now owned we believe by Mrs. Clay. At this place James Howard departed this life at quite an advanced age, but the exact date of his death we have been unable to ascertain. The second son, Paris Howard, was born on the eastern shore of Maryland, Feb. 5, 1777; was brought to Kentucky when quite young, and after remaining with his father at the above place till he arrived at the age of maturity, he ventured out upon his own resources, and about the year 1800 was married to Catherine Current, who was also a native of Maryland, and was born April 11, 1782. (She had twelve brothers and sisters, each over six feet tall, according to Collin's "History of Kentucky", Vol.

II, p. 70). Paris settled near Ruddel's Mills, where he secured and developed a large tract of land, something near 700 acres. The fruits of this marriage were nine children, six sons and three daughters. This family has since become noted in the history of Kentucky for their remarkable height, weight and longevity.

Believing it to be appropriate that a brief but accurate statement of this noted family should be embodied in this work, we submit the following:

Father (Paris Howard), 6 ft. 4 ins., 200 lbs.; Thomas C., 6 ft., 4 ins., 230 lbs.; James, 6 ft., 6½ ins., 216 lbs.; John C. (deceased) 6 ft. 11½ ins., 266 lbs.; Elijah, 6 ft., 3 ins., 210 lbs.; Matthew, 6 ft., 6½ ins., 220 lbs.; Eli, 6 ft., 4¾ ins., 198 lbs.

Mother (Catherine Howard) 6 ft., ½ ins., 285 lbs.; Sarah, 6 ft., 2 ins., 165 lbs.; Mary (deceased) 6 ft., 3 ins., 160 lbs.; Margaret, 6 ft., 3 ins., 215 lbs.

Average height males, 6 ft., 5¾ inches. Average weight, 220 lbs.

Average height females, 6 ft., 2½ inches. Average weight, 206¼ lbs.

The father, Paris Howard, died on the home place, near Ruddel's Mills, on the 27th of July, 1862, in his eighty-sixth year, his wife following him July 14, 1870, in her eighty-ninth year. At this date there has been but two deaths in this large family of children, seven still survive, five sons and two daughters; the youngest child being now in her sixty-first year. Taking into consideration the number of persons composing this family, their height, weight, strength and longevity, they are perhaps without a parallel in the world.

The youngest son, Eli Howard, was born March 2nd, 1819, near Ruddel's Mills, where he was reared and educated. On the 3rd of November, 1842, he was married to Hannah P., daughter of Michael Isgrig, of Harrison County. Her grandfather, Daniel Isgrig, was a native of Maryland, where he married on the 6th day of January, 1777 to Margaret Cole. He subsequently emigrated to Kentucky and settled in what is now Harrison County, where he reared three sons and four daughters. The youngest son, Michael, was born March 27, 1792. Married May 19, 1816 (Bourbon County Marriage Book 2, p. 58, records this date as May 12, 1816), to Margaret Current, who was born near Paris Feb. 15, 1795. "Uncle Mike," as he was familiarly called, was one of a lively, jocular disposition, and will doubtless be remembered by many of the readers of this sketch. He died Sept. 24, 1860, in his sixty-ninth year, his wife on December 19, 1875, in her eighty-second year. He left a family of one son and two daughters, one daughter having died several years previous to his death.

Our subject, Eli Howard, in a short time after his marriage, settled on a small farm adjoining the old homestead, built a small house in the woods and began clearing around him. Being industrious and economizing throughout the early part of his life, he now owns a nice farm of 200 acres, well-fenced and stocked, and upon which he is endeavoring to retire from active work, and enjoy some of the fruits of his past labors. The result of his marriage was three children: one son, James Alex. born April 24, and died on the 19th of April, 1867 and two daughters, Mary C., born Nov. 13, 1846, and was married Nov. 26, 1863 to Wm. J. Bowman, of Harrison County. This union was blessed with one child, Jennie Lee, who was born January 20, 1865. Mr. Bowman died Dec. 29, 1865, his little girl followed him Jan. 29, 1866, and his wife Feb. 3, 1866. The youngest daughter, Maggie Frances Howard, was born Jan. 25, 1856, and was married on the 10th of October, 1872 to F. E. Baird, a native of Harrison but a resident of Bourbon at the time of his marriage, and still resides in the county.

Mr. Howard and family are all members of the Methodist church. He has never held any political office in his life, never sought any; but at all times and under all circumstances he supports the nominee of the Democratic party. Besides his general routine of business on the farm he has endeavored to make a specialty of raising a few trotting colts; among the most noted of which we might mention, is Lumber, bay gelding, who as a six-year-old, competed in the speed ring at Cynthiana with several of the fastest trotters of his class in the State for the $100 premium, a prize he won with apparent ease. After being honored with some other smaller prizes at this fair Mr. Howard sold him for $1,000 cash to the Hon. T. J. Megibben of Harrison county. He has raised some other promising colts that he sold, untrained, at fair prices. Mr. Howard has been prominently connected with the Masonic Order for many years, serving as Master of his lodge at Ruddel's Mills for several consecutive terms, and from his first admission into the institution, has been one of the most zealous workers and supporters.
